Procedures number	PPOL006P	Version	v2.0
Drafted by	Program Development Coordinator	Approved by MD on	30 March 2021
Responsible person	Program Development Coordinator	Scheduled review date	30 March 2026

1. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1.1 Residential rental providers and CEHL are responsible for following these procedures.
- 1.2 CEHL is responsible for making the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedures available to all program applicants.

2. PROCEDURES

- 2.1 Rental providers will develop and maintain a written Complaints Information Sheet to advise renters about how a complaint about their tenancy or housing can be lodged. Complaints can be lodged either in writing (hard copy or electronic), by telephone, in person or via a complainant's representative or advocate.
- 2.2 In the absence of their own Procedures and Information Sheet, member Co-ops will adopt the Program Complaints and Appeals Procedure, Information Sheet and any other necessary documentation developed by CEHL.
- 2.3 Where a co-operative performs the role of rental provider, a copy of the Complaints Information Sheet will be forwarded to the co-operative's assigned Co-op Development Co-ordinator at CEHL.
- 2.4 A copy of the written Complaints Information Sheet will be offered to renters:
  - a. at the beginning of their tenancy
  - b. at any time requested by the renter
- 2.5 A Complaints Register will be kept by the rental provider listing all complaints received including:
  - a. the date the complaint was received
  - b. the complainants name
  - c. the nature of the complaint
  - d. the person assigned to investigate the complaint
  - e. the date of all responses made.
- 2.6 On receipt of a complaint, a written acknowledgement will be sent to the complainant, explaining
  - a. The person who will be responsible for investigating/resolving the complaint
  - b. whether the complainant may need to offer further information and/or testify at a VCAT hearing
  - c. when the rental provider expects to give a final response.

- 2.7 The acknowledgement will be sent to the complainant within two working days of receiving the complaint.
- 2.8 Where a co-operative performs the role of rental provider, the rental provider will notify CEHL's complaints officer, within seven days, that a complaint has been received and the proposed process to respond.
- 2.9 The rental provider is required to appoint an independent person to investigate the complaint, who is not directly involved in management of the tenancy or property. Where the co-op is the rental provider, this could be CEHL.
- 2.10 Once the investigation is complete, the rental provider will advise the complainant (and any other parties involved) in writing, of the outcome of the investigation and any actions planned.
- 2.11 The independent investigator will endeavour to complete the investigation within 21 days of receiving the complaint. All reasonable efforts will be made to send the outcome of the complaint to the complainant within 30 days of receiving the complaint.
- 2.12 The Complaints Register will be updated to reflect all information regarding outcomes.
- 2.13 A Complaints Report will be produced quarterly detailing:
  - a. the number and type of complaints, including information if there were no complaints.
  - b. the turnaround time for responding to complaints
  - c. the number of complaints that resulted in further appeals
  - d. the number of complaints that were successfully resolved
- 2.14 The Complaints Report will be used by the rental provider to measure the effectiveness of the process and plan for improvements where needed and to identify systematic or recurrent issues.
- 2.15 Where a co-operative performs the role of rental provider, a copy of the Complaints Report and planned improvements will be forwarded to the co-operative's assigned Complaints Officer every quarter.
- 2.16 The written advice of the outcome of the complaint will include information about how an appeal can be lodged with CEHL or the Housing Registrar if the complainant disagrees with the findings of the investigation or the action planned. rental providers must co-operate fully with investigations carried out by the Housing Registrar.
- 2.17 Where an initial investigation has not resolved the issue, the matter will be dealt with via the CEHL complaints management system, or may be referred to the Housing Registrar.
