

CEHL PROPERTY COMMITTEE

GOVERNANCE CHARTER

Revision approved by the Board February 2021

1. Purpose and appointment by the CEHL Board:

In the context of this Committee the Board is responsible for the oversight of effective arrangements regarding:

- Property development, acquisition, disposal and project management.
- Asset management

The Board has established the CEHL Property Committee (the Committee) to assist it to discharge this responsibility.

This Governance Charter sets out the roles, responsibility and operational requirements of the Committee as delegated by the CEHL Board.

Development and acquisition proposals, development project reports and asset management reports are the core documents for monitoring and review by the Committee.

2. Authority

The Board authorises the Committee, through the Committee Chair, to:

- Seek any information it requires from employees of CEHL; and
- Commission independent legal, commercial or other consultants to advise the Committee or assist the Committee in the conduct of its duties.
- Determine an appropriate valuation to apply to member home purchases where two (2) independent valuations received vary by more than 10%.

3. Role of the Committee

To review property and asset reports and strategies, make recommendations to the Board and to assist the Board to engage with such matters in a strategic, timely and relevant manner.

4. Duties and Responsibilities

The Committee will advise the Board in relation to key property, asset and other related matters. In fulfilling these functions, the Committee will perform the oversight and review functions as outlined in Attachment A: Guidance areas for the Committee's oversight & review

5. Membership, Quorum & Decision Making

The Committee is a formally approved subcommittee of the Board and will comprise at least four Committee Members:

- At least two Non-Executive Directors of the Board (one whom will be Chair of the Committee);
- From time to time and appointed by the Committee, other individuals who are experienced in property and asset matters; and
- CEHL's Managing Director or delegate-

A quorum of the Committee shall be at least three Committee Members, one of who must be a Non-Executive Director of the Board.

The Committee may decide to appoint a Deputy Chair

CEHL's Board Chair is an ex-officio member of the Committee and is entitled to attend any or all Committee meetings and has a vote if attending. Any CEHL Director not a member of the Committee shall be entitled to attend meetings as an observer.

The Committee will meet at least four times per year and more often as considered necessary.

Membership of the Committee will be reviewed on an annual basis at the CEHL Board Meeting following the AGM.

Recommendations to the CEHL Board will be considered at the next Board meeting following the Committee meeting or via out of session or circular resolution.

6. Invitees

The following will be invited as regular Committee attendees:

- A senior CEHL employee with responsibility for property development and acquisition
- A senior CEHL employee with responsibility for asset management

The Managing Director will be responsible ensuring the Committee is provided with appropriate secretariat support.

The Committee may at its discretion decide to meet without CEHL management present.

The Committee may at its discretion request other employees and/or consultants attend the Committee Meeting.

7. Administration, Meeting and Review

- Agenda:* Each Member has the right to place items on the Agenda. The Agenda will be finalised by the Chair. The required papers will be circulated with the Agenda not less than 5 clear days prior to the meeting
- Minutes:* Minutes will be taken and circulated to Committee Members within 1 week of the meeting. Once approved by the Committee Chair, they will be circulated to the Board with recommendations clearly set out for Board consideration. The Committee Chair shall report to the Board.
- Conflicts:* Where members are deemed to have a real or perceived conflict of interest, they are required to declare this, and the committee will determine the extent of their involvement in any discussion and decision.
- Review:* The Committee will review its performance annually and should include identification of opportunities for improvement and identify additional training and education that may be of assistance to Directors. The Chair will co-ordinate the review and table it at the Board.
